

COMING FOR 2009-10

FIELD TRIPS & SCHOOL PROGRAMS

CITY GREEN Live multicultural theatre for grades K-6

by Dyanne DiSalvo

Adapted by Josiah Polhemus with Music composed by Daniel Savio (the artistic team that created Chicken Sunday and Grandpa's Teeth)

Join young Marcy and Old Man Hammer in Brooklyn as they do battle over turning an abandoned neighborhood lot into a community garden. Audience participation and a dancing flower ballet will keep you laughing as the themes of community and intergenerational cooperation are explored.

Oakland: May 5, 6 and 7
Shows at 10AM and 11:30AM
Federal Building Auditorium
1301 Clay Street

Redwood City: May 14
Shows at 10AM and 11:30AM
Veteran's Building Auditorium
1455 Madison Avenue

Reserve Seats Now!
All seats are $6. Includes free teacher guide and opportunity to meet the actors.

Call (510) 444-4755 ext. 116

BRING STAGEBRIDGE to your SCHOOL!

ASSEMBLY PROGRAMS

Respond, Reflect, Respect!

This interactive storytelling assembly program will inspire and challenge students to treat everyone (big and small, short and tall, one and all) with RESPECT! Wise, ancient and classic tales from around the world reinforce the all important theme of valuing and appreciating our world and all those who live in it. 35 - 50 minutes with question and answer session following play

CLASSROOM PROGRAMS

Bring grandparent storytellers, grandparent improv troupe, and master drama and storytelling teachers to work with students. Workshops are customized to fit your needs.

CALL TODAY!

Contact Barbara Johnson at (510) 444-4755 ext. 116

Call Today!
(510) 444-4755
www.stagebridge.org